and as this is more in the nature of a political pension there seems to be no necessity to subdivide it according to the Muhammadan Law amongst all the co-sharers. The pension being hereditary may be registered in the name of Abdul Razack as prayed for.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that Abdul Nabi, son of Mohomed Hazi, a Sarjapur Jahagir stipendiary, getting an allowance of Rs1-7-3 under Government order No. $\frac{\text{Fl 1263-3}}{\text{S.A. 141-09-2}}$ dated 24th August 1909 died of plague on the 19th September 1909 in the Kayamgutta village of Hinnakki, Jigani Hobli, Anekal Taluk, before any payment was made to him, as per orders of the Bangalore District Treasury Officer in his no 232 dated 10th September 1909. On report of his death to the Treasury officer by the Taluk Amildar, arrears of allowances due to him till the 20th September 1909 were ordered to be paid by the then Treasury officer to the wife of the deceased, by name Majan Bi and she was accordingly paid.

The Amildar of Anekal Taluk states that the deceased stipendiary has left behind him an old mother by name Aminabi who is about 80 years old, his wife Majan Bi about 35 years old, two minor sons

Sons Abdul Razak and Mahomed Ali who are of 10 and 3 years of age respectively and a daughter named Bijanbi about 5 years old, with no other heirs. This fact is corroborated by the mutchalikas executed by his wife and by the people of the Hinnokki village where he resided for about twenty years till the date of his death.

As the wife of the deceased stipendiary, prays that the allowances enjoyed by her husband may be kindly sanctioned in the name of her eldest son Abdul Razak, the Amildar also recommends that the pension may be ordered to be continued in the name of the eldest son.

Under the above circumstances the pension may be sanctioned in the name of Abdul Razak the eldest son of the deceased stipendiary.

The entire vernacular records ending with the Bangalore Assistant Commissioner's yadi No. 1023 dated 9th April 1910, are herein enclosed for reference and kind return.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore District.
